RIVER RECEDING; CREEKS SWOLLEN

Muscatatuck and White Creek Out of Their Banks and Some Fields in Bottoms Are Flooded.

8-FOOT STAGE AT ROCKFORD

Local Weather Observer Reports Almost Four Inches of Rainfall in Forty-eight Hours.

Although the high water which resulted from the hard rainfall Sunday and Monday is receding in most places, several roads leading into the city were flooded today. White River at Rockford began to recede about noon today after a rise of a little more than eight feet was recorded. The road between this city and Jonesville was not made impassable, although a little water ran over the highway just west of the wagon bridge at Rockford. However, the condition of the road is very bad as work has been started there for the concrete improvement. The gravel has been removed and the loose soil was left soft by the hard rain so that traffic is impeded.

The Muscatatuck river is out of its banks in several places south of here and a road near Chestnut Ridge was impassable this morning. Later in the day, it was reported, the water started to recede and none of the highways was blocked. White Creek is out of its banks in several places, according to reports here. Mutton Creek and Storm Creek, east of here, was also swollen, but have not reached the serious flood stage.

Throughout the county many acres of land are flooded. The flooded area, however, is limited and the damage will not be severe. Reports reaching here state that some fields of corn have been damaged and wheat fields in the bottoms are in danger of damage. It is thought, however, that the water will drain from the fields within a few hours, in which case the loss will not be large.

Ira Bedel, who maintains the government weather station at Woodstock Gardens, reported that the total rainfall on Sunday and Monday was 3.9 inches. The rainfall on Sunday is given as 1.3 inches while on Monday it was 2.6. This amount of rainfall in the period of forty-eight hours is very unusual, especially at this season of the year.

Farmers declare that the most serious result of the hard rain and flood is that the wheat acreage will be reduced greatly. Many farmers planned on late sowing because of the weather conditions during the first twenty days of the month and since that time rain has been so frequent that many of the fields were not in condition for the seed. Some fields have been sowed in wheat for the second time this fall, the first stand having been ruined by the Hessian fly. The ground is now so wet that it will not dry sufficiently in time for October sowing and the majority of farmers declare that November is too late for wheat.

COURT FINDS PAUL COX NOT GUILTY

Defendant Was Charged With Furnishing Liquor Unlawfully—Was Indicted by Grand Jury.

The case of the State of Indiana vs. Paul Cox was tried in the Jackson circuit court today and after hearing the evidence Judge James A. Cox rendered a verdict finding for the defendant.

The defendant was charged with unlawfully furnishing liquor. He was indicted by a grand jury last spring. No other cases were disposed of in circuit court today.

MANY ORDERS ARE PLACED FOR COAL

Local People Getting in Supply in Anticipation of The Threatened Miners' Strike Saturday.

EASTERN VARIETIES SCARCE

Industrial Concerns Here Also Making Preparations to Prevent Shut Down in Case Strike Comes.

That Seymour people are alert to the grave probability of a general strike of bituminous coal miners next Saturday, is indicated by the large number of orders for coal which have been placed during the last week or ten days. While a large percentage of local householders purchased their winter's supply of coal during the summer months, it is not believed that as many are as well supplied as they were at the same time last year, following the general campaign conducted through the federal coal administration for the public to buy early. It is said that there has never been a time when the approach of winter found local people so well stocked with coal as last year.

Many people followed the precedent which was established in 1918 and bought their coal early. These householders have less personal alarm over the threatened strike. But many others took the attitude that there would not likely be a shortage of coal this winter and decided to take a chance on buying as they needed rather than to tie up the money in a year's supply. Such people now realize that if a strike is called the supply will be very limited and possibly exhausted altogether at times.

To guard against an empty coal bin in mid-winter householders who did not buy their coal during the summer or early fall are now placing their orders. Eastern coal is practically off the local market as this is being used to fill orders closer to the miners. Most of the Seymour dealers have been receiving several cars of Indiana coal each week or ten days and this is distributed as rapidly as it is unloaded. There is practically no reserve supply of coal in the city and should the shipments suddenly stop, deliveries would also be at an end.

Local industrial concerns are also preparing for the strike eventuality. Manufacturing plants buy their coal in large quantities and most of the plants here have sufficient fuel on hand to keep their plants in operation for several weeks after a strike is called. An effort is being made to furnish food manufacturing concerns with ample coal for if they were forced to close down during the strike only added misery and suffering would result.

If the coal miners' strike were to be left to a vote of the people here, it is not likely that the demands would be granted. The average householder feels that the coal miners' wages are already higher than in other lines of activity and cannot see why he should be required to pay sixty percent, more for coal. If the miners' demands are granted coal would retail here from $10 to $14 a ton, depending upon the quality.

MORE FOODSTUFF HAS ARRIVED AT POSTOFFICE

Second Shipment Includes Orders Up to and Including Number 55—Delivered Today.

A second shipment of government foodstuffs has arrived at the Seymour postoffice and will be delivered today. The shipment includes all orders up to and including number fifty-five which were placed with Postmaster Allen Swope several weeks ago.

Postmaster Swope stated today that the remainder of orders placed through the local postoffice for the government foodstuffs are expected to arrive soon. About one hundred Seymour people took advantage of the opportunity offered by the government to purchase surplus groceries that were purchased for use in the army before the armistice was signed. A shipment was received a few days ago at which time seventeen orders were distributed in this city.

JONESVILLE WOMAN PASSES AWAY MONDAY EVENING

Mrs. A. J. Vincent Succumbs to Illness Lasting Ten Weeks—Burial at Brownstown.

Mrs. Blanche Vincent, wife of A. J. Vincent, of Jonesville, died at the family home Monday evening at 7 o'clock following an illness of ten weeks due to a complication of diseases. The deceased was thirty-six years old.

Mrs. Vincent was the daughter of William Samples and wife, deceased, and was born at Brownstown July 3, 1883. Besides a husband the deceased is survived by eight children, three brothers, two sisters and several other relatives and many friends.

The funeral service will be held from the Jonesville Christian church Thursday morning at 10:30. The body will be taken from Jonesville to Brownstown where a service will be held from the Christian church at 1:00 p. m. Interment will be in Fairview cemetery at Brownstown.

QUIET IS REPORTS IN CANTON STRIKE DISTRICT

Six Hundred National Guardsmen Encamped Within Hour's Ride of The Zone.

Canton, O., Oct. 28—Another night of quiet passed in the steel strike district here. Awed by the knowledge that 600 fully equipped national guardsmen were encamped within less than an hour's ride, persons who participated in the rioting of the past few days kept to their homes.

Following the ousting of Mayor Poorman by Gov. Cox yesterday for failure to stop the rioting, Henry A. Schrantz, appointed to fill the vacancy, asked the council to appropriate $5,000 for extra police. In the meantime the sheriff accepted the services of 500 steel strikers offered by strike leaders. They will act as special deputies and help maintain order.

VOTE ON PROHIBITION BILL DELAYED IN SENATE

President Wilson Announces Ban Will Not be Lifted Until Treaty is Ratified.

BULLETIN Bill Passes Over Veto.

Washington, October 28—The senate this afternoon passed the national prohibition enforcement bill over the veto of President Wilson by a vote of 65 to 20. The house took similar action late yesterday.

Washington, October 28—The attempt to obtain a speedy vote on President Wilson's veto of the national prohibition enforcement bill encountered opposition in the senate today when the matter was brought up by Senator Sterling, South Dakota.

Shortly before the senate discussion, it was made known at the White House that President Wilson will not lift the ban on war time prohibition until after ratification of the peace treaty. The enforcement act under discussion in the senate applies to war time and constitutional prohibition and will become a law when the senate overrides the president's veto. Senator Hitchcock insisted the senate continue treaty discussion, pointing out that the body is in executive session and the prohibition measure cannot be brought up. Hitchcock's contention that Sterling's motion to put the senate back into legislative session was debatable was upheld by the chair. Senators Underwood and Thomas started to discuss the motion, but discussion was upheld while the congress received King Albert.

WHITE HOUSE RECEIVES FIRST EUROPEAN RULERS

King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium Greeted by Mrs. Wilson.

By United Press

Washington, Oct. 28—The White House received its first European monarchs today when King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium called to pay their respects to the President and Mrs. Wilson. The call was informal and lasted only twenty minutes. While the Belgian rulers were in the White House, the president's physicians were holding the regular morning conference over the president's condition and he did not see the visitors. Mrs. Wilson greeted them at the door and the king and queen chatted with America's "first lady," and with Miss Margaret Wilson, the president's daughter. Mrs. Wilson also escorted the rulers to the door and as the queen left she kissed Mrs. Wilson's hand.

The American congress later welcomed King Albert. The senate and then the house halted proceedings and heard the Belgian ruler, who with Queen Elizabeth and Prince Leopold, is finishing a tour that took him across the American continent and back.

In his slow, precise English, the king urged a tightening of the bonds between his country and the United States through the interchange of ideas and commercial relations. Senator Cummins made the address of welcome in the senate. At the first direct reference to the king in Cummins's address, applause spread over the chamber.

STRIKE BY MINERS APPEARS CERTAIN

Executive Committee of Miners' Union To Meet in Indianapolis Tomorrow.

TO DRAFT ANSWER TO WILSON

Leaders Will Likely Tell The President That The Demands Must Be Met.

By United Press

Indianapolis, Oct. 28—With the final decision on whether or not the coal miners will strike at midnight Friday, less than twenty-four hours distant, there seemed little possibility today that the strike call would be rescinded.

The executive committee of the United Mine Workers of America, twenty five district presidents of coal producing states and members of the miners' schedule committee will meet at headquarters here at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to draft an answer to the appeal of President Wilson that the strike be called off.

That the answer will say that the strike must go on unless demands are met by mine operators, was the opinion at miners' headquarters today. Blame for the strike will be placed on the mine operators in the answer, it was certain.

Only members of the executive council were scheduled to attend tomorrow's meeting, when it is first called. However, due to the added importance to the situation as a result of the president's appeal, John L. Lewis, acting president of the union, sent out a call last night from his home at Springfield, Ill., for the district presidents and the scale committee members to join in the session. Lewis called each of the members on the telephone and urged them to attend.

Meanwhile preparations for the strike continued. A 100 per cent strike was confidently predicted by union officials here.

EARLY SENATE ACTION ON PEACE TREATY EXPECTED

Shields and Moses Amendments Dealing With Vote May be Presented Soon.

By United Press

Washington, October 28—Prospects for an early senate action on the peace treaty again looked brighter today as administration leaders prepared to force a vote on the Shields and Moses amendments which deal with the voting in the league of nations.

The Johnson amendment on this subject was defeated by a vote of 38 to 40 yesterday. The vote came unexpectedly and many senators were not present.

Senator Lodge yesterday said a "few more remarks" from senators on the Republican side were to be made "before the Shields amendment is voted upon."

SAYS PLAN WAS HATCHED TO KIDNAP EDESEL FORD

Man Posing as Private Detective Gives Information to Detroit Police.

By United Press

Detroit, October 28—A plot to kidnap Edsel Ford, son of Henry Ford, millionaire automobile manufacturer of Detroit was frustrated here with the arrest of four men, police said today. The alleged conspiracy was exposed by Floyd Gray, who said he was a private detective and posed as an ex-convict to gain the confidence of the men and to join in the undertaking. Gray told the police that a bell hop in a Detroit hotel hatched the plot. It was intended to drug Young Ford and hold him for $200,000. It was planned to get Ford into an automobile on the pretense of taking him home. A member of the gang was to be concealed in the car, armed with the drug. Ford was to be secreted near Mt. Clemens, Mich., near Detroit, until the ransom was paid. Police are investigating Gray's story.

STEAMER WRECKED TWENTY-FIVE LOST

Crosby Line Vessel, City of Muskegon Blown Against Pier in Lake Michigan.

GREAT WAVE HITS THE SHIP

Craft Strike Broadside With Such Force That Heavy Timbers Are Splintered.

By United Press

Muskegon, Mich., Oct. 28—The Crosby line steamer City of Muskegon, was blown against a pier in Lake Michigan one mile from shore here this morning and wrecked. Twenty-five were lost. The vessel, a side wheeler, was dashed to pieces. Seven bodies have been recovered. A sixty mile gale was blowing.

All but twenty of the passengers climbed upon the pier before the vessel was swept back into the lake. They made their escape under direction of Capt. Miller.

The vessel, a combination freighter and passenger, carried a crew of 35 and 37 passengers. The craft was bound from Milwaukee to this port. It was passing between the two piers which project one mile into Lake Michigan at 4:30 this morning when a great wave lifted it broadside against the south pier.

Captain Edward Miller, of Milwaukee, ordered all passengers to the decks when the vessel was lifted upon the pier. Suddenly the water receded, sucking the vessel down. Dozens of persons were thrown into the water.

A great wave caught her at the entrance of the passage and dashed her broadside against the south pier. Timbers were smashed to splinters. Passengers poured to the upper decks and were transferred to the slippery pier by Capt. Edward Miller and members of the crew.

Another wave swept the boat back from the pier and she sank in ten minutes.

In the darkness and confusion a count of passengers was attempted. Twenty were unaccounted for. Some of these were believed to have climbed back to the pier after being thrown into the water when the boat was washed away from the structure.

The vessel was launched in Detroit in 1881. It was first known as the City of Milwaukee. She had a metal hull and was 231 feet long.

Later her name was changed to the City of Holland and was sold to the Graham and Morton line. She plied between Chicago, Holland and St. Joseph, Mich., for many years.

During a trip from Muskegon to Milwaukee last summer the vessel encountered serious engine trouble and was lost for twenty-four hours. At that time it was feared that she had gone down in a heavy sea.

The vessel went down at 4:30 a. m. Wallowing along in a heavy sea, the old boat attempted to pass in between the two piers extending one mile out into the lake.

HEAVY FLOOD DAMAGE IN SOUTHEASTERN MISSOURI

Father and Two Children Are Drowned—High Water Follows Continued Rain.

By United Press

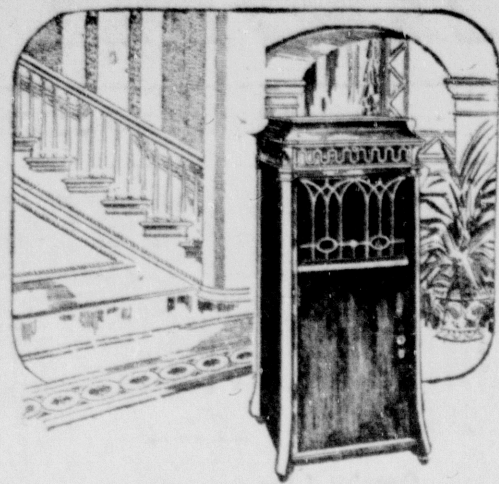

St. Louis, October 28—Three drowned and thousands of dollars damage is the toll of floods in southeastern Missouri today. One man and his two children lost their lives when they were swept away by the torrents in Smith Ford's creek at Tipton, Mo. The Meramec river reached a seventeen-foot stage today and weather bureau officials reported that it would reach the twenty-five foot stage within the next twenty-four hours. Rain started Saturday and continued until last night flooded all streams in this section.

TRUTH REQUIRED.

The case in which Delavan Smith, publisher of the Indianapolis News, is charged in federal court with having made false affidavits to the postoffice department as to the ownership of the newspaper, is the first of that character ever instituted in Indiana. The defendant was indicted by the federal grand jury following an investigation of the charge that he represented himself as the sole owner of the News although seventy-five per cent of the stock was owned by the estate of the late Charles Warren Fairbanks. Several years ago congress enacted a law which requires newspapers to publish semi-annual statements giving the names and addresses of the stockholders and mortgagees who own or control more than one per cent, of the stock. Newspapers at the same time are also required to state the average paid circulation during the six months' period immediately preceding the publication of the postoffice statement. The obvious purpose of the law is to give the public an opportunity to learn who owns and controls the newspaper which information in many instances will explain the editorial policy that is followed.

While the great majority of newspapers of the country comply faithfully with the requirements of this law there are some, doubtless, who have tried to evade it. The evasions are probably more frequent in the matter of paid circulation. The law specifies that in giving this figure only subscriptions which are paid shall be considered and that free copies, exchanges and all others must be eliminated. Thus, the statement is a benefit to the advertiser, and the wide-awake advertiser of this day makes it a point to know about the circulation of a newspaper before he contracts for space.

Whether the publisher of the News is guilty of any wrong-doing is a matter for the court to determine, but the case will serve to remind publishers who have either carelessly or wilfully failed to comply with the provisions of the law that they have been laying themselves liable to prosecution. Now that the attention of the federal authorities has been brought to the law, it is not unlikely that closer scrutiny will be given to the semi-annual statements in the future. If the law is worth anything at all, it should be enforced so that the information which it is designed to give to the public will be furnished accurately.

Asserts New Discovery Brings Blessed Relief To Rose and Hay Fever Sufferers

Can Make It Yourself At Home At Trifling Expense

In spite of all the doubters and scoffers, a man in Kentucky, who changed his annoying and distressing hay fever into less than a mild cold, claims most emphatically that if taken in time hay fever can be conquered or at least made so harmless that it is not even bothersome.

He gave his discovery to scores of other sufferers with the most remarkable results and has recently been prevailed upon to dispense it through pharmacists to all hay fever sufferers who still have faith that nature has provided an effective remedy for this common yet miserable disease.

And best of all this remedy costs almost nothing. Get a one ounce bottle of Mentholized Arcine at any drug store, pour the contents into a pint bottle and fill the pint bottle with water that has been boiled.

Then gargle as directed and twice daily sniff or spray each nostril thoroughly.

That's all there is to it; so simple that a lot of people will say that it can't do the work; but oftentimes simple natural remedies are the best as you will find after using.

If you will make up a pint and use it for a week or ten days you need not be surprised if your unwelcome yearly visitor fails to appear.

ORDERED TO PAY DAMAGES AND WASH SOAPED WINDOWS

Five Boys Given Severe Lecturing by Mayor Burkart for Their Actions Sunday Night.

Five small boys were called before Mayor Burkart yesterday to account for their actions Sunday night when they soaped the windows in several business houses and turned over some out-buildings in the residence district. The boys at first denied their guilt but after severe questioning by the officers finally admitted that they committed the deeds with which they were charged.

The boys were given a severe lecturing by Mayor Burkart. He told them that the fact that they were guilty of such actions on Sunday night was alone reason enough for a sentence to the reform school. When questioned by the mayor the boys told him that they were home at 9 o'clock Sunday night and he informed them that boys of their age should be at home earlier.

The mayor has taken the matter under advisement and while he is reaching a decision the boys were instructed to go to the Interstate Public Service Company and make arrangements to pay for a light that they broke, to pay the persons whose out-buildings were damaged and, last but not least, to wash all of the windows that they soaped. The boys agreed to comply with his instructions and were allowed to go.

About fifty boys gathered in front of the police station where they quintet were reprimanded and by orders of the mayor they were instructed to come on the inside and hear what he had to say. Mayor Burkart took advantage of the time to tell the boys that soaping windows, throwing flour and corn damaging property would not be permitted on Hallowe'en and those who violate the laws will get into serious trouble. He stated that the city would be paroled with extra police to see that no property is damaged.

The mayor will likely take the cases of the five boys under advisement for some time pending their future actions and if they again get into trouble they will pay the penalty for their actions Sunday night along with any new charges that may be brought against them.

GRANDPARENTS PROVE THEY HAD NO PART IN KIDNAPING

Mr. and Mrs. George Harvey of Bartholomew County Released
From Court.

Columbus, Ind., October 28—Mr. and Mrs. George Harvey of Clifford, who were taken into circuit court here on a contempt charge, were released after they proved they had no part in the kidnaping of their four-year-old grandson, whom their daughter, Mrs. Ella Burns, is alleged to have kidnaped a few days ago. Everett Burns was recently granted a divorce from Ella Burns and the custody of their son was given to the father. The grandparents of the child, who had the custody of the child at the time, were ordered to turn him over to his father in two weeks, but before the time expired the mother is alleged to have kidnaped him and the whereabouts of the two are unknown.

INSURANCE PLAN USED BY CHURCH

Charlestown, S. C., Congregation Finds Method Increases Attendance at Services.

PENSIONS FOR AGED MEMBERS

Weekly Benefits Paid to Sick and Needy From Fund Created by Assessments.

By United Press
Charlestown, S. C., Oct. 28—A practical plan to persuade members to attend church services and support church work has been found here in the insurance plan put into operation by Rev. A. E. Cornish, rector of St. John's Episcopal Mission.

In the two months the plan, whereby the church insured its members, has been in operation the membership of the church has increased to such an extent that plans are on foot to raise a $50,000 fund for building a larger church.

Early last summer Rev. Cornish found members falling into apathy. Attendance was falling off and the vestry was becoming alarmed at what seemed to be a sure slow death for the parish. The pastor hit upon the idea that to induce members to take an interest in the church he would have to give them something to do.

Calling his leading members into council with him, he laid before them the plan to tax each working man and woman in the parish one day's wages a month. All others should pay $1.00 a month each, it was decided. With this fund he proposed to pay benefits to the sick, the poor and needy and to relatives of members who died.

The scheme was declared work-

MAKES FEET FEEL FINE!

The instant you apply a little strip of soothing Red Top Callous Plaster to that sore, "achey" callous, corn or bunion, you'll forget your foot troubles.

RED TOP CALLOUS PLASTER
removes hard growth by painless absorption, takes out swelling, soreness, pain and you walk with comfort from the start. RED TOP is the sure, safe way to foot comfort—it's simple, easy to apply, comforting to wear. Sure relief or money back. Many applications in 2c "handy roll." able and put into operation. During the first month 54 members subscribed. In the second month the subscriptions had mounted enormously until now Rev. Cornish declares interest in church work and social service is at the highest point.

Members over 70 years old get pensions of $2.00 a week. Those ill receive $5.00 a week. Relatives of dead members are given $100.00 each.

Interest is such that now Rev. Cornish has undertaken to obtain the church building fund by selling 1000 $50.00 bonds payable in cash or in installments. Other plans including a nursery have been proposed by women members.

In Memoriam.

Hazel Bretthauer Fleetwood. Passed from this life Oct. 28, 1918. We miss her presence and her sweet smile.

Her ways so loving would the house beguile,
And lead us ever upward to the skies.
And now for her we shed the silent tear.

It is not well to wish her back again,
And yet the tears will fall today,
Because our hearts are full of pain.
THE FAMILY.

Funeral of Mrs. Maloney.

The funeral of Mrs. Katherine Maloney, wife of Edward Maloney, was conducted today in Cincinnati. Mrs. Maloney who was about fifty-five years old, died Saturday. She was a daughter of Mary A. Lyons and formerly lived in this city, moving from here about thirty years ago. Her husband is a Baltimore and Ohio passenger conductor and is well known here. Besides the husband, she is survived by one daughter, Lillian.

PUBLIC UTILITIES AND THE COMMUNITY

Bert Weedon, of Indianapolis, Speaks Before the Rotary Club At the Noon Luncheon.

Bert Weedon, of Indianapolis, General Freight and Passenger Agent for the Interstate Public Service Company, and Elmer E. Dunlap of Indianapolis, an architect, were guests of the Seymour Rotary Club at their noon luncheon today. Mr. Weedon was on the program to speak on the relation of the public utility to the welfare of the community. He said a large percent of the grievances between a community and the utility are imaginary growing out of a lack of knowledge of all the conditions. In former days, Mr. Weedon said, utility companies did not always deal squarely with the public "but at the present time," he said, "I do not know of any utility company in Indiana that is not trying to deal absolutely on the square and to treat the public as it would expect to be treated under similar conditions."

There are times, he said, when differences will arise and service be unsatisfactory. A community may outgrow a utility before it can make changes necessary to meet increased business. There may be difficulty in financing changes which are necessary to make. A public utility should take the public into its confidence and secure its cooperation when it meets a difficult situation as well as when things are running smoothly. Mr. Weedon stated that with the tying up into one large system all of the plants of the Interstate Public Service Company, there would be no reasonable cause for complaint by local people when they are able to complete their work.

In addition to Mr. Weedon's address, Henry Osterman spoke on "Why I Am What I Am." Dr. G. G. Graessle and Senator E. P. Elser urged the benefits of Rotary and Rev. J. H. More spoke on the Red Cross membership drive which is now being arranged. The singing was led by C. D. Billings and W. L. Federmann, with Don A. Bollinger at the piano.

Unit Programme.

The management of the Majestic Theatre will present for the first time in this city, tonight Samuel L. Rothapfel's first Unit Programme, pronounced by the critics the greatest achievement of cinema art. The programme consists of six distinct features and is presented with music arranged especially for each feature by Mr. Rothapfel. When given its premiere, recently, at the Rialto theatre, critics pronounced it the most novel and entertaining presentation ever screened. Tonight the Rothapfel Unit Programme will be given a special presentation and the management of the Majestic Theatre recommends that his patrons take advantage of the opportunity offered to see the first complete programme on pictures ever presented under the banner of the same producer.

MOULDER RETURNS TO FORMER DUTIES

Evansville Man Tells How Trutona Ended Several Weeks Layoff.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 27—After several weeks lay off as a result of troubles from which he could get no relief, Ottis Barley a well known Evansville moulder residing at 711 Upper Seventh, is again on the job. He attributes his return to work to Trutona the perfect tonic.

"I had stomach trouble," Mr. Barley said, "I was constantly annoyed by a heavy feeling in my stomach—seemed as though a rock lay in the pit of my stomach. My condition had become so bad that I couldn't work for several weeks."

"I feel so much better, since taking Trutona, that I've returned to work. After I had taken only two bottles of this medicine I felt greatly improved. The rheumatic trouble which caused my knee to ache and swell has been relieved by Trutona, also. I give Trutona all credit for my improvement."

Trutona is especially recommended for stomach, bowel and kidney trouble, indigestion, constipation, nausea, nervousness and the like. Trutona is a tonic without a superior and has proved beneficial to thousands in a weakened, rundown condition.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Seymour at W. L. Federmann's Drug Store.

SOCIAL EVENTS

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

Mrs. Carrie Humes, 517 East Third street, was pleasantly surprised Monday evening by a large number of neighbors and friends, the occasion being her fifty-seventh birthday anniversary. The evening was spent playing rook and an elaborate two course luncheon was served.

The rooms were decorated with baskets of flowers. In the dining room, streamers of pink crepe paper were hung from the chandelier to the corners of the table. On each corner was a crystal candle holder containing candles. The centerpiece was an immense angel food birthday cake containing fifty-seven candles.

Mrs. Humes received a large number of gifts.

The affair was arranged by Miss Humes' two daughters, Miss Edna Humes and Mrs. D. A. Green.

Those who attended were Mrs. Samuel Hodapp, Mrs. Sarah Edwards, Mrs. Sarah Lee and son, John, Mrs. Louis Eckstein and son, Louis, Mrs. J. M. Lewis, and three sons, Ora, Graessle and John M., Mrs. T. E. Ross and three sons, Lawrence, Howard and Leland, Mrs. D. A. Green and three daughters, Ruth, Virginia and Ladona, Mrs. Fred Hopkins and daughter, Mildred, Mrs. Harold Wright and daughter, Mrs. A. C. Livensparger, Mrs. Harry Purkhiser, Mrs. Humes and children, Edna, Esther, Hazel and Tom.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

Misses Laura Beikmann and Esther Albering entertained a number of friends Monday evening at the home of the latter on South Poplar street in honor of Miss Martha Beikmann whose marriage to Ernest Rhoades will take place in the near future.

Those who attended were Misses Rachel, Edna and Pauline Gerdorn, Adelia Kasting, Lila and Eudora Nieman, Anna Topie, Bernice and Lucille Pickrell, Gracia Hauenschild, Lydia Bosse, Mary Booker, Mary Hackman, Mrs. Harry Stradley and daughter, Emma, Mrs. Lillian Otis, Mrs. Elizabeth Stockamp, Mrs. Laura Harlow, Mrs. Harmon Gerdorn, Mrs. George Albering and Mrs. Elnora Moritz.

The house was elaborately decorated with bouquets of white chrysanthemums. Miss Beikmann was completely surprised. After the guests were assembled, the honor guest was blindfolded and led to a table containing the gifts. Refreshments were served.

TUESDAY CLUB.

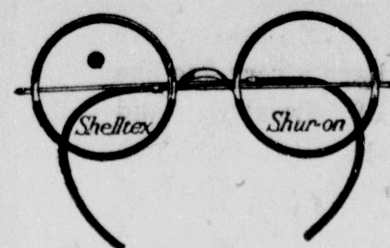

The meeting of the Seymour Tuesday Club will be held Tuesday, November 4, at the home of Mrs. Katie May Luckey, North Chestnut street, instead of with Mrs. Lynn Faulkner, as scheduled. At this meeting, Prof. W. E. Jenkins will deliver an address on "Spirit of Greek Life."

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. Lemuel Day entertained eighteen children this afternoon at her home on East Brown street, in honor of the fifth birthday anniversary of her little son, Jack. Halloween decorations were used throughout the house, and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

The guests were: Jean Steinkamp,

ENTERTAINED.

Mae Haper and Marie Adams entertained a company of young people last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haper on North Booth street in honor of Maurice Haper's fourteenth birthday anniversary and a farewell party for Miss Emma Gallamore who will soon leave for her future home in Indianapolis.

Those present were: Irene Monroe, Eloise Lee, Laura Nuss, Emma Gallamore, Marie Adams and Mae Haper, Earl Young, Lewis Adams, Carl Haper, William Brackemeyer and Maurice Haper.

Mrs. Haper was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Archie Adams. The evening was spent in games and music and light refreshments were served.

MASQUERADE DANCE.

One of the enjoyable affairs of the season was a masquerade dance given by the Royal Neighbors lodge at the Moose hall Monday evening for the members and friends. One of the features of the evening was the grand march in which only those who were masked participated. Three judges were appointed to award the prizes for the best costumes which was given to Lee Blevins who was attired as a Dutchman and Miss Helen Blevins who represented a sunflower. The evening was spent in dancing which was enjoyed by about fifty people. Music was furnished by Dr. R. G. Haas, piano, G. C. Goodwin, saxophone and Ed. Nutter, drums.

Mrs. Mary Kammar, who has been visiting Fred Christopher and family near Dudleytown, returned to her home in Louisville this morning.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarrhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing may be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE.

Diamond Cut Diamond

By JANE BUNKER

Copyright by the Bobbs-Merrill Company.

And with this attended to, Elfreda, stationing the lady-of-all-work in the proper attitude with the goblet in readiness to catch her heart's blood, plunged a dagger in her bosom and died.

The faithful lady-in-waiting obediently caught the blood as it fell—seven great drops. But, oh, miracle—when she looked into the golden goblet what did she behold? Seven drops, unmixed as when they fell from the gaping wound of her beloved mistress—seven glorious blood-red diamonds!

But she was strictly honest. The letter and the diamonds, still in the golden goblet, were conveyed to Oscar at the appointed hour, and at sunset the two brothers united their tears above the bier of the beautiful Elfreda.

Such was the legendary origin of the most wonderful diamonds in the world—a collection created by miracle; and thenceforth, in keeping with their mystic origin, they assumed a peculiar role in the history of nations, binding bargains and sealing treaties of peace.

But now the later legends had endowed the stones with occult powers which were imparted to their possessors—the renewal of youth, wealth, untold energy of mind and spirit.

A century after the stones were taken to Venice and cut and their real glory was revealed to the world; and at last they excited the envy of Bismarck and came into the possession of the emperor, grandfather to the present William, thence to William the present.

To this legend Billy and I had listened with unblinking interest. Monsieur told it in the sustained manner of one immured to secrets of state. It was he who broke the spell of our silence by asking me for a glass of water.

I carried the water to him and turned away my eyes while he held the glass with his two hands to his lips.

"That's quite a yarn," observed Billy, blowing out a cloud.

"Yarn?" questioned monsieur.

"Story—tale—narrative," Billy explained. "Une histoire," on which monsieur brightened and declared: "C'est une véritable histoire."

"True when it happened," translated Billy. "But what I don't see is, where you come in on the diamond deal."

"I?" said monsieur, giving me a look that asked: "Is there anything I have not beautifully explained?"

"Yes—you; I don't seem yet to see where you belong in this veritable histoire," returned Billy, looking about for an ash tray, but driving at his point—"I don't see what part you play in it at all? Granted that the diamonds belong to the Emperor William—now, then, what are you doing with them?"

"I?" again he looked at me. "I am trying to find zem for ze Emperor William."

"All right. But what are you doing with them—in America?" Billy's tone was severe. "That is what you have to answer."

Billy looked the man straight in the eyes, defiantly, and I thought, for just the fraction of a second, that he quailed under the boyish honest stare.

"Yes, sir," continued Billy, as monsieur did not immediately reply. "There's quite a rap between the emperor's owning them and your having them. Very possibly I am lacking in imagination, but to be quite frank, I can't see the connection."

It was to me monsieur appealed. "Ah, madame, what more can I say? I am at your mercy—" and he held out his marabout hands.

I hardened under Billy's look at me and replied coolly: "I think you'd better tell us how you came by the diamonds. I can't see the precise connection between the Emperor William and yourself."

Monsieur appeared to choke back a number of emotions and then declared, "Madame must pardon me, but zoze—are secrets—of state!"

He did it really magnificently—together the great man, the confidant of kings, and that—on top of the rest—convinced me of his sincerity. Before I could reply, Billy pulled my sleeve and demanded: "Where's an ash tray?—I'm getting this stuff all over your best rug. Get me a plate or something out of the kitchen," and with his eyes he said: "Leave this man to me for a minute, will you?"

I stepped into the kitchen and heard Billy say to monsieur in a low voice: "I see I don't need to point out to you the position you're placing yourself in by refusing an explanation as to how you came to have those diamonds in your possession. There's only one thing left for me to think."

He paused and I thought, "Heavens! Is he going to accuse monsieur?"

"YOU STOLE THEM."

I was rooted to the floor. The reply came like a shot—"Monsieur!" and De Ravenol leaped to his feet. The two men had given and taken a mortal blow—for monsieur, in his single word, had returned as good as he got and they now measured each other.

Billy broke the silence and recalled me with: "Say—where's that ash tray?"

The Tug of Life and Death

Two warring forces—the red blood cells and the white blood cells—are always contending for mastery—in the blood. They are the processes of building up and tearing down. During youth the building-up process of the red blood cells is in the ascendency so that the tendency of the body is all towards growth and development. As middle age approaches the two forces tend to equality while with the coming of old age, the victory of the tearing down process of the white blood cells is manifested by the slow, gradual decay of the vital energies.

REOLO Makes Rich Red Blood

Oxygen is the life giver—necessary to maintain life. REOLO absorbs the oxygen from the air in the lungs and carries it into the blood—rapidly oxidizing or revitalizing the red blood cells—and increasing the amount of hemoglobin in the blood, sending through the entire body a stream of rich, vitalized, health-giving blood that nourishes every cell, of the nerves, tissues, brain and bones.

By special arrangement with the Dr. A. L. Reusing Laboratories, we have been appointed licensees for the distribution of "REOLO" direct from the laboratories. Each package is certified by Dr. A. L. Reusing, and sold under a positive guarantee of satisfactory results or we will gladly refund your money. Large box of REOLO (containing 100 tablets,) only costs $1.00.

The scarlet that had leaped to monsieur's cheeks faded as I entered the room. He stood. He towered. Yet he spoke with humility.

"It is not as De Ravenol I explain how it is I am seeking ze diamonds zat belong to ze Emperor William—it is as ze emperor's messenger to ze court of Mexico. And yet—it is as plain De Ravenol—ze fazez of Claire whom you know—zat I implore you to keep my confidence zat I give you now at ze peril of my life."

He paused, and we both felt constrained to assure him we would keep his confidence, and he proceeded.

"I have undertook zis secret mission for which ze emperor have select me from all his friends—as he have select me, I may call myself his friend—and I have dedicate myself to it wis all my zeal."

"Since Napoleon I, Europe has seen no like der Kaiser Wilhelm—he is warrior and conqueror in his heart, even as zey were—we have now ze concert of powers zat prevent to one man to own ze whole of Europe any more."

"And ze emperor looks ahead for ze future of his people and he say: 'How do zey be fed in hundred years? Ze fields of all ze fazezland—ze science of all ze fazezlands will not do it. But wis money, my people may buy zeyr food as zey will—beef and wheat from ze whole world. Wis industry—manufactures—commerce—we have ze money. But zat our commerce does us some valuable good, we must make some alliances for zis purpose. England have set her seal on India, her boot on Africa and her hand on Canada; but she have not touch ze Latin nations—she owns not Mexico—she controls not yet ze some-day Panama canal. Zere we have great strategic point for future development zat England have not got hold of.' In Mexico, zen, ze Emperor William sees some bright future for ze fazezland."

"Now ze madame president of Mexico is young; she have great beauty and she rule her venerable husband wis zat beauty—as have women at all times. So once she have hear ze legend of ze seven blood-red diamonds. Above all ozzer sings in ze world she desire zoze diamonds and she have communicate her wish to der kaiser and he have seen in her wish some way to his own for ze fazezland."

"To zis end he have arrange treaty wis Mexico which make Mexico a sister state of ze great German alliance he have in mind. To zis end, also, he have commissioned me—"

The rest of what monsieur said just then was lost on me, for there had swooped on me a lightning stroke of understanding—the whole nefarious scheme of Germany and the emperor lay bare to my inner eye. Mexico—the Panama canal—these were the strategic points of a world conquest such as history had never witnessed. Germany in possession of Mexico, with half a million troops massed on our border—why, she could flippantly tread on the lion's tail any day and go to war and say to us: "Help England—and lose Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and California." With half a million troops in Mexico, Germany could spank us into almost anything!

And Mexico, with her almost untouched resources; with her hot-blooded troops under German discipline for twenty years—for ten—for five!

But I could stop it! For the lever that was to set the scheme in motion was thumb-tacked to the bottom of my sideboard drawer—the seven blood-red diamonds!

Monsieur's voice had reached a stop. My resolve was taken.

"Never!" was the one impassioned word I uttered.

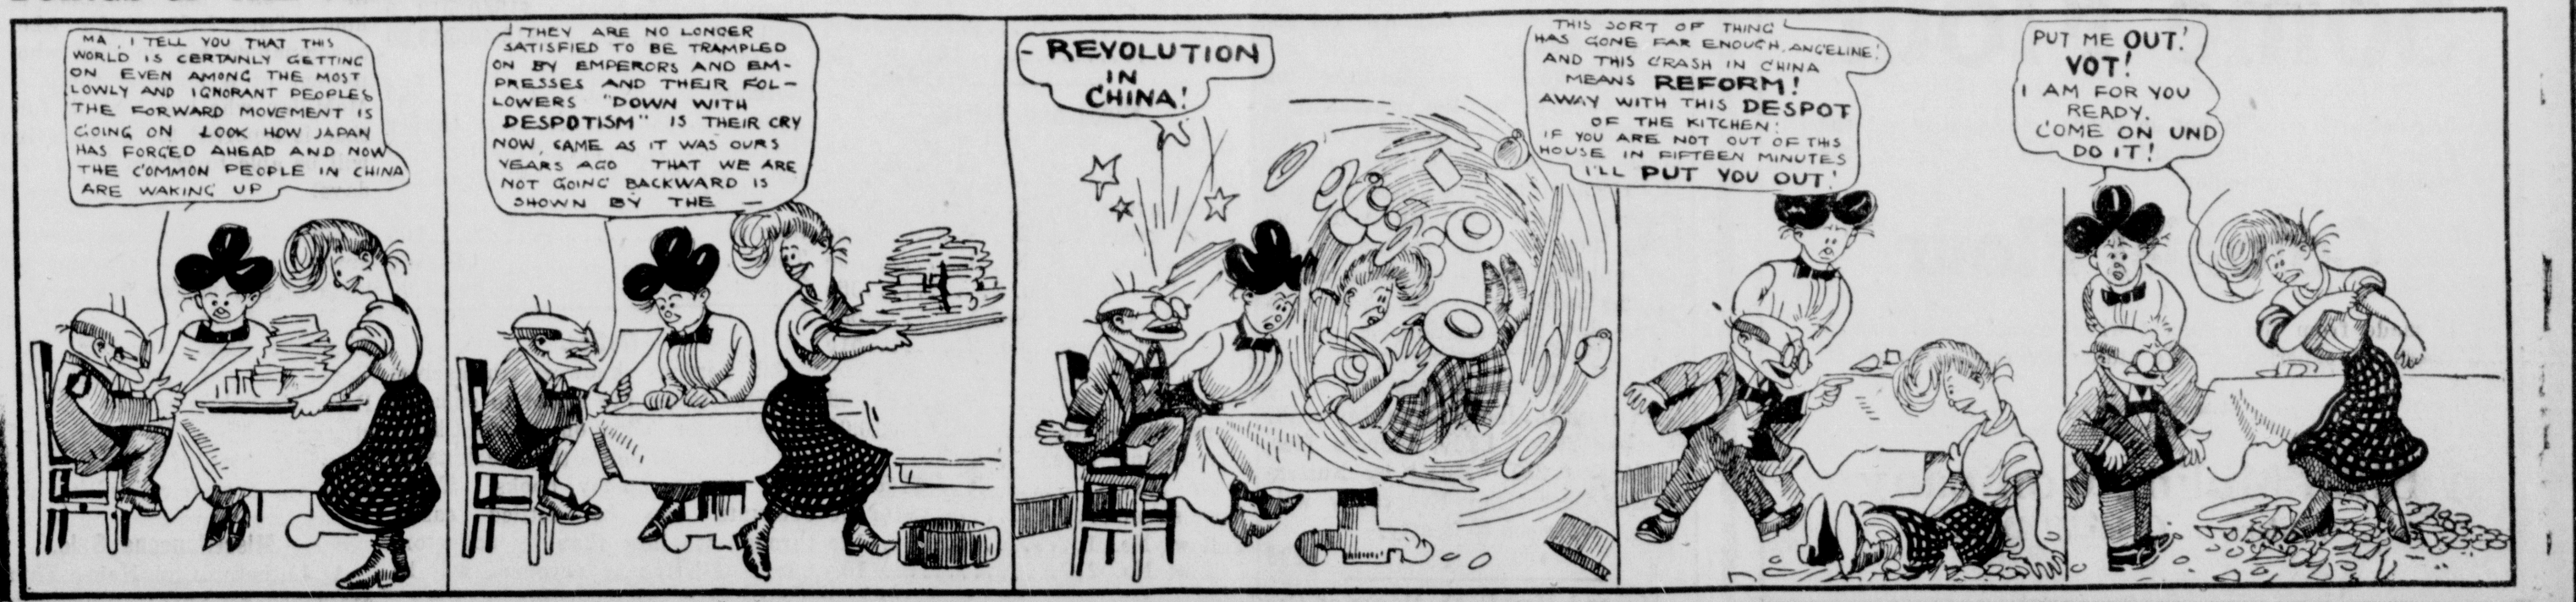

Billy echoed it—"Never!" His thoughts had flown with mine and had seen the impending calamity which we two, out of the world, could now prevent. Then, drawing himself to his full height, he gave forth our ultimais good and some is not so good; the quality of the flour depends on the quality of the wheat and the capability of the miller.

Colonial Flour

is made from the choicest wheat by millers with many years of experience. We stake our reputation on it.
